

MUSIC, MIRTH & MAGIC!

ROLL UP, ROLL UP FOR A ONCE IN A LIFETIME EVENT!

Celebrating this year's Wallsend Festival, the Buddle Arts Centre presents "Music, Mirth and Magic" on Saturday 7 July. Together for the first time are some very different performers who are out to entertain you.

North Tyneside-based CLOUD NINE THEATRE COMPANY present their new comedy sketch show "The Laughter Factory", written by Peter Mortimer and Valerie Laws, directed by Neil Armstrong - a fast-paced off-the-wall creation featuring terrorist sheep, talking houses, aristocratic charvers and a war hero with the runs!

Music comes from LOON - based in the Buddle Arts Centre, they are five troubadours who play their own unique brand of world music and will make their first stage appearance in their home venue fresh from performing at the Glastonbury Festival.

Completing the line-up is STEVE MISCHIEF (aka Steve Cousins) - performer, entertainer and creative mischief-maker, who wowed the crowds at last year's Mouth of the Tyne Festival.

Doors open 7pm with licensed bar for a 7.30pm start - tickets £5 (£4 concs and Buddle Arts Centre Supporters Card holders) from the box office 0191 200 7026.

Buddle Arts Centre
258b Station Road
Wallsend
Tyne & Wear
NE28 8RG
0191 200 7132
the.buddle@northtyneside.gov.uk
www.northtyneside.gov.uk/tourist/arts.shtml

*Payment accepted by most debit and credit cards
Level access to theatre
Guide and hearing dogs welcome
Free car parks for visitors (limited spaces)
7 minutes' walk from Wallsend Metro
Travel information – Traveline 0870 608 2 608*

Programme details are subject to change. Buddle Arts Centre is not responsible for changes to this programme outside its control