

200 Years of Maritime Chambers

Exhibition and Open Day - 7 November 2007

Maritime Chambers, formerly the HQ of the Stag Line, is 200 years old this year and there are plans to mark the occasion with an exhibition and an opportunity to tour the building. The official opening will be at 11am and the building will be open to the public from 2pm until 7pm.

If you have memories or mementoes of the building, or would like an invitation to attend the opening ceremony, please contact:
